On WOMAN.

EACH Creature's link'd to that below it,
All Nature, if obſerv'd, will ſhow it;
And, upward ſtill, our Search will prove
Each link'd again to that above.
Heav'n, when it had created Man,
Unfiniſh'd ſaw Creation's Plan;
Tho' Man and Angel were akin,
Here yet appear'd ſome Gap between,
Nor would the Links together meet,
'Til WOMAN did the Chain compleat.

CYNTHIO.

MADRID, July 20.

BY Letters from Barcelona there is Advice of an Engagement which happened lately near the Iſland of Sicily, between four Malteſe Gallies and four Algerine Chebeques. The former defended themſelves with the greateſt Bravery, but were at length near being overpowered by the ſuperior Strength of their Enemies Ships, when they were fortunately joined by the St. Vincent, one of their Men of War. The Arrival of this Ship decided the Conteſt, after an obſtinate Fight, in Favour of the Malteſe, who ſunk two of the Chebeques, and took one; the fourth, with Difficulty, made its Eſcape. The Malteſe loſt twenty Knights in the Engagement, and three hundred private Men. Yeſterday Advice came, by an Expreſs from Cadiz, that five Regiſter Ships were arrived in that Bay, one of which is ſaid to be immenſely rich.

LONDON.

July 4. On the 2d died, the Rev. Mr. John Peter Stehelin, F. R. S. Miniſter of the French Church near Leiceſter fields: He was remarkable for having made himſelf Maſter of the following Languages, viz. Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Engliſh, French, German, Italian, Daniſh, Dutch, Coptick, Armenian, Syriack, Arabick, Chaldean, Gothick, old Tudeſco or Druid, Anglo-Saxon; beſides Spaniſh, Portugueſe, and Welch.

July 19. Thurſday a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction, among whom were the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, and ſeveral Admirals, attended a conſiderable Time at the Admiralty, to ſee ſome Experiments tried for finding out the Longitude.

July 24. On Thurſday laſt a Clergyman going from a Gentleman's Houſe near St. James's to Covent Garden, in on of the narrow Streets he ſaw laying on a Bulk the Body of a Man cover'd with a white Cloth, with a Plate of Salt ſet on his Belly; by him ſtood a poor Woman in Tears, who begg'd his Charity towards the Burial of the Dead, ſaying, that ſome bruriſh People had given her Huſband ſo much Gin to drink that it had kill'd him. The Parſon, willing to know the Truth, took hold of one of his Hands, and lifting his Arm up it fell as dead, which he repeated ſeveral Times: He then ſaid to the Woman, that his Hand was yet warm, and taking a Pin from the Inſide of the Flap of his Coat he ran it directly under his Thumb Nail, which ſo quicken'd his Spirits, that he inſtantly jump'd up, made a Spring over the Parſon's Head, and made clear off. This Fellow it ſeems is a merry drunken Cobler in that Neighbourhood, who is accuſtomed to play Tricks of this Nature, but had never fallen into the Hands of a Perſon who knew the Difference between the Quick and the Dead.

By a Letter from Fort Auguſtus, we are certainly informed, that on the Morning of the 18th paſt, Archibald M'Donald, of Barriſdale, one of the Perſons attainted for being concerned in the late Rebellion, was apprehended in a Wood on the Side of Loch horn, in Moydart, by a Party of General Howard's Regiment, which had been detached from Bernera Port for that Purpoſe. There were alſo taken in Company with him — M'Donald, Younger, of Morar, Ronald M'Donald, commonly known by the Name of Captain of Barriſdale's Guard, with four others of his Gang. As they were all in Arms, and had ſecured themſelves in a Hut in the Wood, they would no doubt have made Reſiſtance, had they not been quite ſurrounded by the Party in the Morning, before they ſuſpected any Danger. They were all brought Priſoners to Fort Auguſtus on Saturday the 21ſt, and cloſely confined; and on the 28th, a Macer was diſpatched from Edinburgh, to bring them to that Caſtle.

The Spaniſh Miniſters have viſibly fixed on the Barbary Corſairs in this Part of the World; and the clandeſtine Traders in America, to raiſe gradually, and in a Manner imperceptibly, a great Maratime Force. It behoves therefore thoſe Nations, who in ſuch a Caſe are moſt likely to be affected, to keep their Eyes on their Proceedings in both Parts of the Globe.

Extract of a Letter from Exeter, dated Aug. 10.

" On Saturday the 4th, or Sunday the 5th Inſtant, Mr. Joſeph Harvey, a Farmer, at a Place called Corringdon, about two Miles from South Brent Town, with his Wife, a Son and Daughter, were all barbarouſly murdered by Perſons unknown. The Murderers were diſcovered by one William Prouſe, a Labourer, who had work'd for the ſaid Mr. Harvey; and going on Monday laſt to Corringdon to ſee him, to get further Employment, found the Doors faſt; and thinking that the People of the Houſe were gone on Buſineſs, went away, and called again the next Day, but found all faſt as before; he alſo went the third Time, which was on the 9th Inſtant, and then likewiſe finding the Doors as he left them, he goes to Edward Bower, in the Neighbourhood, and they went together to the Houſe; and looking thro' the Kitchen Window, ſaw Mr. Joſeph Harvey lying dead on the Floor with his Throat cut. They then came into Brent Town, and acquainted Mr. Anthony Harvey, Brother of the Deceaſed, with what they had diſcovered; who went with a Number of the Inhabitants, and entering at the Window, found the Relation given them by Prouſe too true. Mr. Harvey had his Stockings and Breeches on; and was ſuppoſed to have heard the Aſſaſſins in the Houſe, and was come down to ſee who they were. Going up Stairs, they found Mrs. Harvey in her Bed, with her Throat cut from Ear to Ear; and then proceeding to the Bed of the Son, a ſtout young Man, about twenty-three, found him alſo dead, having his Brains beat out, and his Throat cut; as was alſo the Daughter, aged about Twenty, whoſe Brains work'd through the Scull. A Hatchet was found in the Son's Room."

Auguſt 15. On Monday the three Men, committed to Wood ſtreet Compter, for a Rape on the Body of Diana Puſhee, at the Queen's Arms in Newgate ſtreet, applied to be bailed out, but were refuſed. It appeared on Examination, that they had ordered her to be ſent up Stairs between Eight and Nine o'Clock, with Oyſters, and upon her coming into the Room, one of them bolted the Door, and ſwore he would lye with her, and directly pulling out a Knife threatened to cut her Throat if ſhe made the leaſt Noiſe: The two others had Knives and threatened her in the ſame Manner; on which ſhe fell on her Knees and begg'd for Mercy, ſaying ſhe was married, and had four Children alive; notwithſtanding which the ſecond that got up pull'd her down on the Floor, and forcibly lay with her, and then the firſt did the ſame, and alſo the third. During this barbarous Scene ſhe groaned ſo loud as to be heard by one of the Waiters who was ill, and lay in a Room on the ſame Floor; on which he got up and call'd to his Fellow-ſervant below, who went up Stairs, but not getting in, he raiſed a Ladder againſt the Window, and looking in, ſaw two of them in very indecent Situations, and leſt they ſhould diſcover him, he ſunk his Head, and raiſing it again, ſaw a third from behind a Screen. By the Time the Waiter was got from the Ladder, the Woman had broke from them, and forcing the Bolt with her Oyſter Knife, came out crying in a violent Manner, that ſhe was ruined, for that three Villains had all lain with her againſt her Will. As there were a good Company in the Houſe, they immediately ran up Stairs, apprehended, and ſecured the three Men in Wood ſtreet Compter, until Monday Noon, when they underwent an Examination of above two Hours, before Thomas Chitty, Eſq; Sitting Alderman at Guild-hall, who, upon the poſitive Oath of the much injured Woman againſt all the Priſoners, as alſo the corroborating Circumſtances of the Servants, and the Character of the Proſecutrix being well ſupported upon Oath by many reputable Inhabitants, re-committed all the three to the Compter, to anſwer for their Offences the next Seſſions at the Bar of the Old Baily. The Inhabitants of Newgate-ſtreet are determined to ſupport the Woman in proſecuting them.

The Polly, Bowman, from Virginia, for London, which parted from her Anchors in the Downs the 5th Inſtant in a hard Gale of Wind, and drove aſhore between the two Pier Heads at Ramſgate, arrived Yeſterday ſafe at her Moorings in the River. She had on board upwards of 500 Hogſheads of Tobacco, beſides a great Quantity of Pig-Iron and other Things; And notwithſtanding that ſhe is one of the ſharpeſt built Veſſels in that Trade, ſhe has received little or no Damage. By which it is to be obſerved that all Ships driven out of the Downs towards that Place, if they will run boldly on the Chalk Rocks, there is Safety for them.

DUBLIN, June 26.

This Day five Companies of Foot, and three Troops of Horſe, marched into the County of Kildare, to prevent the unlawful Rioters, who are now in a moſt unwarrantable Manner pulling down Fences, Hedges and Gates, under Pretence of thoſe Lands being formerly Commons.

From the Scarcity of Labourers in this Kingdom, their Prices have riſen from Five pence to Eight and Ten-pence per Day; and who muſt this Load fall upon but the Occupiers of Land and Manufacturers? which is all owing to the ſcandalous Neglect of Huſbandry.

The Poverty and Diſtreſs now raging amongſt many Houſe and Roomkeepers of Dublin, upon Account of the exceſſive Dearneſs of Proviſions, and high home Rents, are incredible, ſeveral of them being obliged to ſell their Cloaths and Houſhold-Furniture, which cannot keep them from being carried to Goal, where more Maſters of different Trades and Families are now at this Time periſhing for Want, and lying in moſt dangerous Fevers and other Diſorders, than ever was known in the Memory of Man; which is entirely owing to Want of Tillage in this unhappy Nation. Is it not ſcandalous and ſhocking to ſend to the moſt remote Parts of the World for Corn, when we might have enough of our own, if the Tillage Act was put in Execution? But the Clergy, who are the greateſt Sufferers by this infatuated Neglect are not the proper Perſons to inform againſt thoſe who neglect this Law; and therefore it were to be wiſhed, that ſome other Methods could be found out to enforce the Laws of the Land, to prevent the ſtarving and baniſhing of our poor Natives.

By Letters from the North, and ſeveral other Parts of the Kingdom, we are aſſured, that many Engroſſers and Huckſters of Corn and Meal, are now ſelling the ſame in the moſt private Manner, being aſhamed of their Extortions, it being now well known, that by the Arrival of many foreign Ships with Corn, that there are vaſt Quantities now in the Kingdom.

Mullingar, in Ireland, June 25. Laſt Night Mrs. Speight of River's Town, was alarmed in the Dead of the Night, by a Noiſe in the Houſe, and knowing every one to be in Bed, ſhe gently ſlid from her Huſband's Side, and going armed into the Kitchen, to her great Surprize found a Fellow in it, whom ſhe ſeized by the Collar, clapping a Piſtol to his Breaſt, and alarmed the People of the Houſe by her Voice, who came to her Aſſiſtance, ſecured and tied him faſt, and this Morning lodged him in our Goal, where he is well bolted. He will not own his Name, but ſays he is from the County of Mayo.

BOSTON, October 1.

We think proper to inform the Public, That the Secretary of this Province has received a Letter by Capt. Warner, from Mr. Agent Bollan, dated in London the 9th Day of July laſt, informing, that large Quantities of Counterfeit Half-pence (leſs in Value than Farthings) had then been ſhipped for Boſton, and was informed, that many more were intended to be ſent in the next Ships to the ſame Place.

Capt. Warner, arrived from London, brought 11 Cannon, 24 Pounders, and two Mortars, with all Sorts of Implements and Stores belonging to them, lately granted by his Majeſty to this Province, in Lieu of thoſe which were taken out of Caſtle William, for the Service of the Expedition againſt Cape-Breton.

October 8. Yeſterday the Gentlemen lately commiſſionated by his Excellency to treat with the ſeveral Tribes of Eaſtern Indians, arrived here on board Capt. Saunders; and we hear they have ſettled all Matters in Diſpute, to the Satisfaction both of the Engliſh and Indians.

On Friday laſt the 28th of September came on in the Court of Aſſize and Goal-Delivery then holding at Springfield, the Trial of Robert Cooke and Stephen Cooke, for the Murder of an Indian Man at Sheffield, on the 11th of April laſt; The Trial held from about 10 o'Clock in the Morning 'till 9 at Night, and the Jury withdrew to conſider of the Evidence; and the next Morning they return'd with their Verdict, and declared the ſaid Robert Cooke guilty of Manſlaughter only; Stephen they acquitted: Upon which the ſaid Robert was branded in the Hand with the Letter T. and ſentenced to twelve Months Impriſonment.

NEW-YORK, October 1.

Capt. Lewis, who we mentioned in N°. 440, to have arrived here from St. Thomas's, further ſays, That the Day on which he arrived at that Iſland, being the 3*d of Auguſt laſt, there came into that Port, one Captain Maybury, in a Sloop from Porto Rico, who reported, That he had been diſpatch'd as a Flag of Truce, from Antigua, by his Excellency Governor Thomas, to the Governor of Porto Rico, in order to demand a Sloop and Cargo that had been taken and carried in there a little Time before by a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta: That he had obtained the full Value of both, and had likewiſe received the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances from the Spaniſh Governor, that whatever Veſſels, Cargoes, or other Things, ſhould hereafter be illegally taken from the Engliſh by the Spaniards, and brought into his Iſland, he would cauſe immediate Retribution to be made to the proper Owners, and the Captors themſelves ſeverely puniſhed.*

In Capt. Deane is come Paſſenger, Capt. Hall, formerly Commander of the Brig Lark, belonging to Connecticut, and mention'd in our Paper ſome Time ago to be taken on the 3*d of Auguſt laſt was a twelve Month, in the Bay of Honduras, in Company with Capt. Crowel of the Sloop Stork, of this Port, and carried into Campeachy. William Johnſon, Capt. Crowel's Mate is likewiſe come home in Capt. Deane, and acquaints us, That after they were taken and carried into Baccalio, himſelf, with both the Captains, were obliged to walk* 100 Leagues back, to the City of Meridie, where they were confined to hard Labour for five Months, allow'd but four Pence half Penny a Day, and otherways us'd extremely ill: From Meridie they were obliged to travel barefoot to Campeachy, where they were put on board ſeparate Ships bound to St. Andreo in Biſcay Bay: That the Ship he was in, parting from the others, was obliged to put in to the Weſtward of St. Andreo, where he happily made his Eſcape and travel'd over the Mountains to Ferol, and meeting at that Place with Capt Hall, who had likewiſe eſcap'd, they both embark'd in an Engliſh Ship bound to London. We have no Intelligence of Capt. Crowel, after his Arrival at St. Andreo.

Mr. Johnſon further acquaints us, That there are 12 Sail of Ships of the Line, on the Stocks at Ferol; 4 at St. Sebaſtians; 4 at St. Andreo, and 30,000 Men employ'd on the Shipping, and making a new Mold at Ferol.

PHILADELPHIA, October 4.

Extract of a Letter from London, Auguſt 18.

" Our Eaſt-India Company have been very lucky in the early Arrival of their China Ships; but not hearing any Thing from the Coaſt, is a great Diſappointment; as the Ship was to ſail in November, we fear ſome Accident has happen'd to her. By ſome private Letters, by way of Bengall, we have gain'd ſome further Advantages over Dupleix's Forces, who was obſtinate to all Terms of Peace, as he exp[illegible]ted a large Supply from Europe, which is confi[illegible]d to us by ſeveral Ships having paſſed the Cape full of Men; but as our Forces ſent out were arriv'd in good Order, we are under no Apprehenſion on the Side of India. Bengall has ſuffer'd much by a Famine; but when the Ships came away their Harveſt was over, and Plenty reſtor'd."

October 11. Saturday laſt there were in this Harbour 37 Ships, 19 Snows, 22 Brigantines, 7 Schooners, and 15 Sloops; in all 100 Sail.

We hear from North-Wales, that on Thurſday laſt they had a violent Whirlwind there, that came from the Southward, and directed its Courſe in a narrow Vein to the Northward; by which many large Trees were blown down, and Fences carried away; alſo the Roof off of a Barn, to a conſiderable Diſtance; and the Roof of a Dwelling Houſe, without hurting any of the People in it.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Thurſday laſt died, in Prince George's County, Mrs. ANNE MURDOCK, the virtuous Conſort of Mr. WILLIAM MURDOCK, and Daughter of the late Col. JOHN ADDISON. She was a Gentlewoman poſſeſſed of many excellent Virtues, and diligent in the Performance of every Duty incumbent on a Wife, Mother, and Neighbour. She laboured for ſome Years before her Death under an almoſt uninterrupted Courſe of bodily Indiſpoſition and Affliction, which ſhe bore with that Patience, Reſolution and Reſignation which becomes a Chriſtian; and her Death is an irretrievable Loſs to her Family, and juſtly lamented by all her Acquaintance.
